Bravity takes courage, and he had courage. Went through a lot in The Crossing, and I do so like the ending to this write. It is a good story, I don't read many stories on the den, but surely did enjoy this one. Some of them are too long and don't hold my attention, but this one did and it was just the right length.

The journey they took across Australia was extraordinary and the hardships from starvation, scurvy and the want of finding water was harrowing. Not knowing the outcome of this life story I was shocked at the misfortune of Burke and Wills. So close to getting back and celebrating their achievements to die as they did. What heroic men they were.
